Oatlands Release Form

Camp and program participants might be photographed, videotaped, and audiotaped as part of their activities while at Oatlands. Photographs, videos, or audio may be used to provide information to the public about Oatlands' educational programs and activities. This information might be in the form of publications, displays, newspaper ads or stories, web site content, and social media, including but not limited to, Facebook and blogs.

Camp and program participants might use Oatlands' social media to post comments about their activities, what they learned, etc. Social media may include, but not be limited to, Facebook, Twitter, and/or blogs.

Camp and program participants might use their name in social media or when video/audiotaping. For example, Arts & Crafts campers will exhibit their work to family members and other visitors; a camper might welcome guests by saying hello and stating his/her name.

Since your child's participation in media produced by Oatlands is voluntary, there will be no financial compensation.

It is important that we receive permission from parents or guardians to have their child photographed, videotaped, or audiotaped for use in media, to use the child's name, and to allow their child to participate in Oatlands' social media.

I grant permission for my child to be photographed or featured in any videotape, television, audio recording, or broadcast that will be produced by and available to the public from Oatlands, or to the media. I grant permission for my child to use Oatlands' social media. I authorize Oatlands to use the photographs or videos of my child and to use the child's name.
