

The Inn at
OATLANDS
HAMLET
A GIFT OF JOHN AND DIANA JAEGER

Oatlands Historic House and Gardens is pleased to introduce,
The Inn at Oatlands Hamlet

Tucked into the hills at Oatlands, this beautiful home boasts five bedrooms, five bathrooms, a living room, a lovely sunroom, a dining room, two sitting rooms and a full modern eat-in kitchen. Recently renovated by J&L Interiors with a classical touch of modern amenities and antique furnishings, the Inn is a perfect space for a romantic getaway, corporate retreat, bridal weekend, wedding weekend, and so much more.

The main structure was built in the 1800s. Edith and William Corcoran Eustis gave the 54 acre parcel of land with the house to their daughter, Anne Eustis Emmet and it came to be known as Oatlands Hamlet. The Emmets added the larger section during the 20th century and the open porch was eventually enclosed to form the sunroom. The dining room contains a detailed and exquisite mural by artist, Olin Dows, an American artist who was a friend of Anne Emmet.

Wedding Weekend Pricing:

Make your wedding at Oatlands a weekend long experience and have the Inn all to yourselves. At $1,200 per night your stay includes five bedrooms and exclusive access to the two sitting rooms, kitchen, dining room, living room and sunroom.*
